

New opportunities for Nurses in Bristol

We have now available new, exciting opportunities for NURSES who would consider starting a new life in Bristol (United Kingdom).

University Hospitals Bristol Foundation Trust (UHBFT) is a dynamic and thriving group of hospitals with 11.500 staff who deliver over 100 different clinical services. Located right in the heart of the city, UHBFT is currently one of only seven in the country to have been rated by The Care Quality Commission (CQC) as "Outstanding" twice and one of only three general acute Trusts to achieve this.

Focused on growth and in providing the best care to their patients, University Hospitals Bristol Foundation Trust plans to merge with Weston Area Health Trust, and with that, a lot of exciting opportunities came along!
