St. Vincent's University Hospital

St. Vincent's University Hospital (SVUH) which is located in Dublin is one of the largest University teaching hospitals in Ireland. The hospital provides a front line emergency service, inpatient and outpatient services with in excess of fifty medical and surgical specialities. The hospital has in excess of 600 in-patient beds, incorporating 7-day, 5-day and day care options, including intensive care, high dependency and coronary care beds as well as medical, surgical, orthopaedic and care of the elderly.

Why work for us?

High quality patient care is our top priority; if you share this passion then we want to hear from you. In return St Vincent's University Hospital can offer you a fulfilling role in a supportive environment with the opportunity to progress your career.

Our ethos is working together to deliver great care to every patient, every day. It's driven by our mission statement – human dignity, compassion, justice, quality and advocacy, which inspire us to keep our patients at the heart of everything we do.

Orientation of new staff

There is a dedicated nursing department induction programme in place for all new nurses and all new nurses will be buddied up with mentors for at least 6 weeks to assist your transition to the hospital.
