THE HOSPITAL:

The University Hospital Southampton NHS Foundation Trust is one of the biggest hospitals in the UK, a referral hospital not only for the quality of its service, CQC rate of Good, but also recognized for its trauma unit. Since it is a University Hospital, the academic culture has a strong presence, that's why it is a perfect place if you are looking for career progression and ongoing development of competence and knowledge. For these reasons, the Hospital has several training programs for all collaborators to have the opportunity to achieve their ambitions.

Southampton city is a seaside town, but do not think it is a place stuck in history. It is a big city with constant activity and, at the same time, there are lots of green spaces perfect to enjoy the beautiful landscapes and relaxing places not so far from the city centre. Southampton is full of history, as it faced several periods of Britain history. The Medieval walls of the city, the Norman Church of St Michael and the monument Mayflower, are just a few milestones that take us back to the history of this wonderful city. The University of Southampton, recognized at an international level, carries the name of the city all over the world, and for this reason, attracts foreign investment and promotes its inner growth. Also, trade, night-time entertainment and theatres are present with several options, either to enjoy drinking something with your friends, as well as see a show with your family.

THE CITY:

Southampton is located in the southeast of England, it has great access roads to London or Portsmouth, a big airport and it is not far from central airports like London Gatwick Airport and London Heathrow Airport. In 2018 it was considered the third better city to live and work in the UK, and in 2017 was also awarded as the best city to raise a family in the United Kingdom. If you are looking for a seaside location with an excellent cost of living and plenty for you and your family to do, Southampton is your ideal location.
